INTRODUCING MONTY HALLS

FIRST CLASS HOLIDAYS' TRAVEL AMBASSADOR

WHERE TO STAY

America has accommodation of all types, from city centre hotels to unique, family homesteads, deluxe resorts to rustic lodges. With such a variety available, we can offer options to suit all budgets and styles, whether it is a full service, top brand hotel to boutique B&B's that provide something unique. Outstanding location can often outweigh the facilities and our descriptions will let you know what to expect.

There is no standard grading system across America so we have created our unique rating based on location, facilities and experience. In some smaller locations, options may be few and may be reflected in the rating, for example, a homestead or B&B may be classified slightly higher due to the unique experience or location that it offers. Look out for our classifications throughout our brochure.

LOCAL SIGHTSEEING

A great way to find your way around or get under the skin of a destination is by a local sightseeing tour. We can offer a wide variety of sightseeing options from visiting the homes of some of the world's biggest stars in Hollywood to hop-on hop-off bus tours; a walking or gourmet food tour with a local expert to a cruise around the iconic New York Skyline; so just let us know what you would like. It's not always about how you see a place, but how you experience it that creates the lasting memories. Tailor made for you, just speak to our experts who will be happy to help.

GETTING AROUND

America is easy to drive around and we can offer both car rental, motorcycle hire and motorhome options. If you don't want to drive, there is an excellent public transport network through the local train links and coach transfers.

Depending on your destination, there are two types of train services. A single-level train service operates on most short distance routes and some long distance trains along the East Coast whilst long distance trains feature the Superliner Service, these are bi-level with stairs connecting lower and upper levels.

Coach Class

Comfortable and economical, Coach Class offers large, reclining seats with fold-down tray tables, overhead reading lights and overhead luggage racks and large, panoramic windows so you can lean back and enjoy the view. transcontinental to intercity routes, there's bound to be a routing to suit your needs.

Day 3: Los Angeles - Palm Springs (125 miles)

You leave the boisterous city of L.A. and drive through the San Bernardino National Forest and by Lake Arrowhead to Palm Springs, which stretches in a dry, hot desert valley. This pretty city, also famous for its golf courses, is a favourite weekend destination for wealthy Californians. A gondola ride up Mt. San Jacinto offers great views of the surrounding area.

Day 4: Palm Springs - Grand Canyon (406 miles)

Leave Palm Springs behind and head for the Joshua Tree National Park, where two distinct desert ecosystems, the Mojave and Colorado, come together; see a fascinating variety of plants and animals including the wacky namesake trees. Then head on to Kingman and the Indian reservation of the Hualapai Nation to Williams and the Grand Canyon National Park. Perhaps you'll explore the rim, watch the sunset, or take a helicopter flight for a better view.

Day 5: Grand Canyon - Lake Powell (150 miles)

Take time this morning to discover the sunrise over the Grand Canyon's South Rim and then leave the canyon behind as you enter Navajo country and the Painted Desert. Take a popular route through sparsely populated Indian Country to Monument Valley, where isolated monoliths of red sandstone tower 1,000 ft. above the valley floor. Arrive in Page, site of massive man-made Lake Powell. The red rocks provide an impressive contrast to the blue water. Boat tours, house boats and water sports provide a lively atmosphere of the lake.

Day 6: Lake Powell - Bryce Canyon (162 miles)

Head north into Utah this morning and through scenic Kanab to the Bryce Canyon National Park. The park includes some of the Earth's most colourful rocks, sculpted by erosion into pillars and other fantastic forms. A walk at sunset through this fantasy world of sandstone is particularly rewarding.

Day 7: Bryce Canyon National Park - Zion National Park (134 miles)

Awake this morning and take the short drive to Zion National Park, which offers many hiking possibilities. See its desert terrain and huge sculpted rock formations, a monument of time carved by wind and water which coexist with hanging gardens. The bizarre sandstone formations and especially the view of the "Angels Landing" are breathtaking.

Day 8: Springdale - Las Vegas (125 miles)

Depart this morning for Las Vegas. On the way perhaps take a short detour and visit Nevada's oldest State Park, Valley of Fire. The rough floor and jagged walls of the park contain brilliant formations of eroded sandstone and sand dunes that often appear to be on fire when reflecting the sun's rays. From the fantastic works of nature to the man-made miracle in the desert - welcome to Las Vegas! Explore the opulent hotels with their fantastic shows, enormous casinos and non-stop entertainment. Perhaps you'll take in a show tonight, or try your hand with lady luck at a game of chance. Whatever you do, don't stay up all night as tomorrow's a special drive!

Day 9: Las Vegas, Death Valley National Park - Visalia (442 miles)

Leave early this morning before the sun gets too hot for the drive through Death Valley. With the lowest point of the Western Hemisphere at 282ft below sea level and mountains 11,000ft high it is quite an experience. This desert area offers a great variety of landscapes which you should not miss like Zabriskie Point with its impressive views and Badwater. Leaving Death Valley behind head towards the Sequoia National Forest and continue through fertile farmland to Visalia.

Day 10: Visalia - Yosemite National Park (146 miles)

Head north across the lush Californian farmland to Fresno and on to the amazing Yosemite National Park, 1,170 square miles of breathtaking natural splendour. Ranging in altitude from 2,000 feet to more than 13,000 feet above sea level, it's hard to believe that Yosemite is just hours from bustling cities like San Francisco and Sacramento. The valley floor is over eight miles long and a spectacular sight. Towering waterfalls cascade over the hard granite rocks and through lush green trees to the valley floor, where rivers flow through tranquil flower filled meadows, wildlife is prolific and birdsong fills the air. There's more to Yosemite than the Yosemite and Bridal Veil Falls, famous El Capitan and Half Dome though.

Three stands of giant Sequoia trees, Black oak and Ponderosa pine provide welcome shade for forest walks, whilst Glacier Point, at 7,214 feet on the rim of Yosemite Valley, provides an eagle's view of the valley floor 3,214 feet below.

Day 11: El Portal - San Francisco (197 miles)

Day 14: Pismo Beach - Los Angeles (176 miles)

Head south through Solvang in the Ynez valley, founded in 1911 by a group of Danes escaping the harshness of the mountain winters. Day 10: Mammoth Lakes - Yosemite National Park (69 miles)

Leaving Mammoth Lakes continue your trip a little further north and then take the infamous Tioga Pass to cross Yosemite National Park. Ride over to El Portal, where you will overnight.

Day 11: Yosemite National Park - San Francisco (194 miles)

You'll cross bridges situated on gorges high above the raging Pacific surf, see artichoke fields perched precariously along rocky cliffs, stop for coffee and lunch, cruise past San Simeon, wind through Cambria and Morro Bay and finally arrive at Pismo Beach. Truly a day's great ride!

Santa Monica is LA's oldest and biggest resort - once a wild beachfront playground, it's now a self-consciously liberal and healthy community. Venice Beach is probably the reason why most people come to Venice - nowhere else does LA parade itself quite so openly as along the wide pathway of Venice Boardwalk. From here you will ride over to Hawthorne, where EagleRider's headquarters are located. Now it's time to return your motorcycles and transfer back to your hotel to get ready for a recap of this great adventure at a "Good-bye" dinner.

Continue to the Midpoint Café in Adrian famous for its "ugly crust" pies. From Adrian you'll follow Route 66 to Albuquerque, New Mexico for a great taste of the Land of Enchantment.

Day 8: Albuquerque

The state's largest city, Albuquerque spreads north and south along the banks of the Rio Grande. Spend the day exploring Downtown Albuquerque's Central Avenue, a treasure trove of Route 66 landmarks. Historic Old Town offers a taste of New Mexico's Spanish colonial past while the Indian Pueblo Cultural Centre, owned by the state's 19 different Pueblo communities, traces the history of the region's Native American cultures.

Day 9: Albuquerque - Santa Fe - Albuquerque (116 miles)

To get a true sense of the Old Route 66, today you will detour to New Mexico's state capital, Santa Fe. Founded on the ruins of an abandoned Indian village and steeped in history, Santa Fe is the oldest capital in the U.S., and although it lost its place on Route 66 in 1938, it remains one of the most picturesque cities in the state. At one time this was the end of the old Santa Fe Trail, the earliest trade route linking the American frontier back east with the far west. Plan to visit one of Santa Fe's famous art galleries, art markets, or museums full of traditional and contemporary art, including works by their own Georgia O'Keeffe, or shop for authentic creations you just won't find anywhere else.

Day 10: Albuquerque - Holbrook (260 miles)

This morning, the state of Arizona welcomes Route 66 travellers with an overwhelming display of trading posts. View huge concrete tepees that stand at the foot of brilliant red-rock mesas en route to Petrified Forest National Park, the only park in the National Park System containing a section of Historic Route 66. Here you will come face-to-face with over 13,000 years of human history and one of the world's largest and most colourful assemblies of petrified wood, historic structures and archaeological sites. Catch a sunset over the Painted Desert from the park's Kachina Point before heading to Holbrook. Once in Holbrook, stop at the Wigwam Motel whose steel and concrete tepees featuring modern conveniences have welcomed guests since the 1950's.

Day 11: Holbrook - Grand Canyon/Williams (180 miles)

Continue to Meteor City, a true vintage trading post whose distinctive dome can be seen for miles along this stretch of Route 66. Pass through Flagstaff and Williams en route to Grand Canyon National Park, a natural wonder that you simply have to see to believe. Spend the day discovering the distinct South Rim of the Canyon. Stop at one of the numerous overlooks, walk part of the Rim Trail or along the historic Hermit Road. Visit a Photo Hot Spot, or climb to the top of a stone Watchtower for panoramic views that extend over 100 miles on clear days.

Day 12: Grand Canyon/Williams - Las Vegas (279 miles)

Leave the town of Williams and the Grand Canyon behind and head to Seligman, the first stop heading west on the longest uninterrupted stretch of Route 66. Continue through Kingman whose old Route 66 cafés and motels still flourish, to one of Arizona's hidden treasures, Hoover Dam. Considered the largest single public works project in the history of the U.S., Hoover Dam straddles the mighty Colorado River, which forms the border between Nevada and Arizona and brings much-needed water and power to the Southwest. Continue to Las Vegas, Nevada, a city that needs no introduction.

Day 13: Las Vegas

Enjoy a full day Las Vegas style. Walk the famous Strip lined with mega-resorts and flashing neon lights, place a bet at one of the many casinos, dine at world-class restaurants, catch the latest must-see show, shop designer boutiques, ride a rollercoaster, lay by the pool ... the list goes on.

Day 14: Las Vegas - Los Angeles Area (290 miles)

This morning, set out through the Mojave Desert for Calico Ghost Town. Re-join Route 66 in Barstow where a collection of historic photographs and artefacts related to Route 66 are on display at the Route 66 Mother Road Museum. Continue through Pasadena, Los Angeles, West Hollywood and Beverly Hills to Santa Monica for a true Hollywood ending to your cross-country journey.

Day 15: Los Angeles Area

Spend the day strolling along the beaches of Santa Monica or browsing the adjacent indoor/outdoor shops at Third Street Promenade. Or, further explore L.A.'s one-of-a-kind destinations, playgrounds of the rich and famous and architectural gems.

Day 1: Arrive Chicago

Welcome to the Windy City! Chicago is the biggest and most exciting of the Great Lake cities, with a stunning skyline along Lake Michigan, and a gamut of top-rated museums, restaurants and cafes, and innumerable bars and nightclubs that pay homage to the city's strong jazz and blues heritage. Meet your fellow riders at an Orientation Meeting followed by a Welcome Dinner and celebration downtown!

Day 2: Chicago - Springfield (187 miles)

This morning you pick up your bike and are off to the ultimate American road trip. From Chicago you head south along the Pontiac Trail, the original name for this bit of the road here, passing through Joliet, checking out the Launching Pad Giant, stopping at the amazing Route 66 Museum in Pontiac and generally getting a feel for the rubber on the Mother Road.

Day 3: Springfield - St. Louis (116 miles)

Today we head towards St. Louis! You will stay primarily on the 2-lane sections of the Mother Road, traversing cornfields and small towns that represent the heartland of America. Arrival into St. Louis will be over the Chain of Rocks Bridge, the original bridge where Route 66 crossed the Mississippi River. Enjoy the short ride today into the "Gateway to the West," St. Louis. This amazing city rests along the shores of the mighty Mississippi River and is home to some of the best live music and BBQ ribs in the country.

Day 4: St. Louis - Joplin (335 miles)

Try to get up early to walk across the street today and enjoy an early morning view of the St. Louis Arch and Mississippi River. Leave the city in your mirrors and settle in to enjoy the rolling Missouri hills that make this area so beautiful and fun to ride in. See the famous World's Largest Rocking Chair in Fanning, wind your way on the twisting roads of Devil's Elbow, and stop at other Route 66 icons.

Day 5: Joplin - Oklahoma City (255 miles)

Today is all about the route as you head west through the hills and horse country through Oklahoma, crossing Miami, Claremore and Catoosa, home of the legendary Blue Whale before passing through Tulsa. Travel through the reservations of several Native American tribes who were "settled" there after colonization, including the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Seminole, Creek and Cherokee. This evening stay in Oklahoma City, the heart and soul of Route 66. Maybe enjoy Bricktown, the neighbourhood in the heart of the city full of lively restaurants, bars and shops.

Day 6: Oklahoma - Amarillo (266 miles)

This morning travel some of the oldest stretches of Oklahoma's Route 66. Once the land of vast buffalo herds, this section of 66 traverses some of the great cattle trails which were used in the 1860s to drive herds of cattle from Texas up to the railhead in Abilene, Kansas. Ride along a section of the Chisholm Trail and stop at the amazing Route 66 Museum in Clinton. Then cross the border into the Texas Panhandle, the southernmost portion of the Great Plains and continue to Amarillo.

Day 7: Amarillo - Santa Fe (303 miles)

Today you leave Texas and are on your way into "The Land of Enchantment", New Mexico. After passing through the world famous Cadillac Ranch, stop at the midway point of the 66 in Adrian, Texas and the ghost town of Glen Rio, where you can stand with one foot in New Mexico and the other one in Texas. From there enter the land of the Comanche Indians, where mesas, mountains, cactus and pines define the landscape as you head up into the High Plains and altitude of Santa Fe in central New Mexico. Santa Fe is one of America's oldest and most beautiful cities, and is your base for the next two nights.

Day 8: Santa Fe

Today is at leisure to rest and enjoy the distinctive flavour of this nearly 400-year-old city.

Day 9: Santa Fe - Gallup (271 miles)

Head south to Albuquerque, New Mexico's largest city, sprawling at the heart of New Mexico, where the main east - west road and rail routes cross both the Rio Grande and the old road south to Mexico. Cross the Rio Grande and head west into the open country and the hues of the Navajo wilderness. You skirt mesas and bluffs into Laguna before riding through the famous Route 66 town of Gallup, an old railroad town and Indian stronghold. Enjoy your stay tonight with a host of fellow riders from around the world.

Day 10: Gallup - Grand Canyon (283 miles)

Today is another day full of spectacular scenery and iconic Route 66 stops. Cross into Arizona and ride to Petrified Forest National Park, a fossilized prehistoric forest of gigantic trees that has been unearthed by erosion. Here you will have the time to explore this stunning landscape and take a moment to get lost in the expansiveness that defines this area. Leaving Petrified Forest NP, travel further west to the Wigwam Hotel in Holbrook, and stop to stand on the corner in Winslow. While most groups stop in Flagstaff or Williams, Arizona, you will ride on to spend the night just one mile from the South Rim of the Grand Canyon. Tonight enjoy the sunset over the South Rim of the Grand Canyon.

Day 11: Grand Canyon - Laughlin (256 miles)

For those looking to get a real "Bird's Eye View" of the Grand Canyon there's an optional morning helicopter ride over the heart of the South Rim. Leaving the Grand Canyon, pick up Route 66 back in Williams before heading to stops in the famous 66 towns of Seligman, Hackberry and Kingman, and Oatman before arriving at your Laughlin hotel on the shores of the Colorado River.

Day 12: Laughlin - Las Vegas (129 miles)

Today is a quick ride for a little detour to take in the incredible sights and sounds of Las Vegas. The journey takes you through your first real taste of the Mojave Desert, and a ride across the famous Hoover Dam. One thing is for sure, your time in Vegas may be short, but it will sure be sweet; try to get a little bit of sleep because you pick up Route 66 tomorrow right where you left off yesterday.

Day 13: Las Vegas - Victorville (282 miles)

Today cross the border into our final State on Route 66, California. Today is a day like no other as you cross the Mojave Desert which offers some of the most dramatic scenery in Southern California. You can imagine what it must have been like for early Route 66 travellers making their way across this huge expanse of desert, dotted with Joshua Trees, cactus, volcanic rock and sand as you stop in the tiny "waystations" of Amboy and Ludlow. Tonight, celebrate your last night on the Mother Road.

Day 14: Victorville - Los Angeles (124 miles)

Today head off for your final destination - the end of the road on the Santa Monica Pier. To get there, however, you first get to ride the 66 miles of the Angeles Crest Highway through the mountainous terrain of Angeles National Forest. This highway is considered one of the top motorcycle rides in southern California and rises to over 2300 meters. Then descend the Crest into the Los Angeles Basin and head towards the Pacific Ocean. Riders always have mixed emotions as they stand at the "End of the Trail" sign on the Santa Monica Pier.

There is a sense of joy and elation at having completed a journey most people only dream about, and a sense of sadness at the thought of the ride having come to an end. Tonight celebrate the miles you've ridden and the friends you made as you party together at a Farewell Dinner.

Day 15: Los Angeles Departure

Today your exciting trip will conclude in Los Angeles. Please be sure to let us know if you need an extra night or two in L.A. to enjoy the sights.

Day 1: Boston

Upon arrival into Boston make your way to your hotel. The rest of the day is free for you to explore Boston, a city of immense charm and character and home of the American Revolution.

Day 2: Boston

Spend today discovering New England's largest city. Most of Boston can be easily explored by foot. Spend some time walking on the Freedom Trail, which highlights the most important historical sites in the city, including Faneuil Hall, the Paul Revere House, the Old State House, Copley Square, Trinity Church and Hancock Tower. Perhaps stroll across the Boston Common and visit the famous "Cheers" bar, before walking the cobbled streets of Beacon Hill and don't forget a snap in front of the gold domed Capital building. Then there's the site of the Boston Tea Party where the first rumblings of Independence began, the Old North Church, and the Bunker Hill Monument. Maybe visit the famous Harvard University, located across the Charles River in Cambridge, or the shops and food stalls in Quincy Market to enjoy a traditional clam "chowdah" served in a bread bowl.

Day 3: Boston - Portland/Mid Coast Maine (110 miles)

Collect your car and then a scenic drive along the coast takes you north through Salem (site of the famous Witch Trials of 1694), Marblehead, Ipswich, and Newburyport. From there, you will be travelling to Kennebunkport, Maine. The Kennebunk's are ship-building and coastal trading towns, settled in 1620. In Portland, a historic city with a charming restored waterfront, you should visit the Old Port, located directly on Casco Bay. And why not enjoy a world-famous Maine lobster for dinner?

Day 4-5: Portland/Mid Coast Maine - Bar Harbor (110 miles)

Bar Harbor is the entrance to the Acadia National Park on Mt. Desert Island. Acadia National Park boasts more than 47,000 acres of lakes, ponds, mountains, and ocean shoreline of protected land along the coast of Maine. Steep slopes rise above the rocky shore, including Cadillac Mountain, which at 1,530 feet is the highest point on the U.S. Atlantic coast. Enjoy the striking scenery and mountain trails in the park.

Day 6: Bar Harbor - White Mountains (250 miles)

Today you will travel through the beautiful White Mountain National Forest. With a backdrop of over 700,000 acres of protected White Mountain National Forest it boasts the tallest peak in the East, snow-capped Mt. Washington (6,288 ft.). Visitors to the North Conway, New Hampshire area have many activities to choose from. One of the highlights is a train ride on the Conway Scenic Railroad.

Day 7: White Mountains

The Kancamagus Scenic Byway follows a beautiful path through New Hampshire's White Mountains. A stunning spectrum of colour underscores the region's natural beauty year-round, but in the autumn, when the fall foliage season starts, the myriad hues of oranges, reds and yellows make a truly spectacular sight. The road meanders through vast forests, old logging roads, and Indian hunting paths. Enjoy this area to savour the natural beauty of the White Mountains.

Day 8 - 9: White Mountains - Green Mountains (155 miles)

On your way to Vermont treat yourself to an ice cream at Ben and Jerry's Ice Cream Factory! Enjoy the classic New England landscape and architecture - a mountain ridgeline, a winding river, hillside farms and quaint villages with white clapperboard churches and village squares surrounded by white picket fencing. Head for Burlington on the banks of Lake Champlain and visit Woodstock, a charming New England village with traditional shops and covered bridges. Drive the great scenic loop highway with white steeple churches, winding roads and quaint New England towns set up against mountains as old as time.

Day 10: Green Mountains - Connecticut River Valley (208 miles)

Manchester Village is a lovely stop on your way to the Berkshire Hills of Massachusetts. Visit the Hancock Shaker village, a restored 19th century settlement. As you travel south through The Berkshires today, you soon come upon Lenox, which was a prosperous farming and mill town until it was suddenly "discovered" by the rich and famous in Boston and New York in the mid-1800s and today is the summer home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Day 11: Connecticut River Valley - Newport (130 miles)

Just when you thought there couldn't possibly be more scenic roads in New England, you'll experience US Route 20 across southern Massachusetts through Sturbridge and the Blackstone River Valley on your way to Newport, Rhode Island. Plan to stop at Old Sturbridge Village where you will come face-to-face with the past and the events that shaped life from the late 1700s to early 1800s in colonial Massachusetts. The Village, complete with actors in 18th century costumes, illustrates the struggles and triumphs of everyday life in colonial New England.

Continue to Newport, summer resort of America's first millionaires. Newport's restored waterfront features many quaint shops and restaurants.

Day 12: Newport

Get ready for the wonders of Newport today. This beautifully located town is called "America's First Resort" after many of America's wealthiest individuals built magnificent summer homes here around the turn of the century. Today, many of these mansions are museums and can be visited. Newport is also a great walking town. You can take the Harbour Walk North and The Harbour Walk South, both of which begin at Perrotti Park, and the Cliff Walk, which follows the coastline and the cliffs. There is also 10-mile scenic driving tour which begins at The Elms and the Newport Winery.

Day 13: Newport - Cape Cod (78 miles)

It's a short but beautiful drive today if you take the scenic coastal route and avoid the highway as you travel to Cape Cod. This is a fabulous summer resort area with white sandy beaches and abundant attractions, on a hook shaped peninsula. It's the site of quaint villages, seafood shacks, lighthouses, ponds and bay and ocean beaches. In the large town of Hyannis, the John F. Kennedy Museum is the first stop on the Kennedy Legacy Trail through downtown, where ferries depart to the resort islands of Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket.

Day 14: Cape Cod

A free day to enjoy Cape Cod. Perhaps you'll plan a whale watch cruise, visit historic Chatham or colourful, artistic Provincetown. The seaside town is on the site of the Mayflower's landing in 1620, commemorated by the towering Pilgrim Monument and neighbouring Provincetown Museum. P-town is known as a long-time haven for artists and has a laid back vibe. Numerous galleries plus restaurants, nightclubs, cabarets and specialty shops are clustered on and around lively Commercial Street.

On the northern tip of Cape Cod and surrounded by the Atlantic Ocean it is well known for its beautiful beaches and sand dunes. Or maybe take a day trip to Martha's Vineyard, holiday home of the Kennedy dynasty, or Nantucket.

Day 15: Cape Cod - Boston (74 miles)

If time allows on your way back to Boston, we suggest a stop in Sandwich, the Cape's oldest town and also a visit to Plymouth's Plimoth Plantation, a real-life experience of 17th century Pilgrim and Colonial Times where you can also see the Mayflower II. Make your way to Boston airport and drop off your rental car, where your tour comes to an end.
