

An aerial photograph of Niagara Falls, showing the massive volume of water cascading over the edge. A small boat is visible in the turbulent water at the base of the falls. A faint rainbow is visible in the mist rising from the water. The sky is bright blue with scattered white clouds. In the background, a line of green trees and a large building are visible on the right side.

FIRST CLASS
HOLIDAYS